

Finance & Accounting - Basics

Getting a better understanding about the most important calculation systems and key words in Finance & Accounting.

Target Group

Employees working in international environments where the working language is English. Employees who wish to refresh or to obtain common knowledge concerning Finance and Accounting, or wish to increase their understanding in this topic. No elementary knowledge is required.

Course Goals

This course enables the participants to understand the objectives and mechanisms of Finance & Accounting systems. Furthermore the course explains the interfaces between Accounting & Finance and other organizational entities of a company's value chain. It will help to improve the communication between the participant and his/her Accounting & Finance department.

The participants will gain common knowledge and understanding in the field of Finance and Accounting.

Content

- Financial Accounting: Income Statement, Balance Sheet, Cash Flow Statement
- Management Accounting: Full-Cost Accounting, Direct-Costing, Project Calculation
- Basics in interpretation and analyzation of financial numbers

Coach

Krings, Ulrich, Professor at the University of Applied Sciences Northwestern Switzerland, Olten

Date, Time and Location

Arbitrary

Costs

For members / non-members CHF 2800